

China has imposed new tariffs on US farm products, while Ontario is hiking electricity prices for Americans in retaliation for President Trump's escalating trade war. Here's ...

Toronto -- Canada's most populous province may bar American-made alcohol in addition to restricting electricity exports to Michigan, New York and Minnesota if U.S. President ...

TORONTO -- Effective today, the Ontario government has applied a 25 per cent surcharge on all electricity exports to the United States as part of the province's initial suite of ...

