

#1 &#183;Jul 18, 2007 I've been doing a good job keeping my car clean with clay bar, cleaner tax, gold wax, scratch x, washing it every week.. etc etc.. what needs work to complete ...

This is why I switched to stainless steel grills. Much easier to clean and care for. I used a half and half water and vinegar solution and bathed for an hour. This will essentially stripp all the ...
