

After every call with electric providers (western power) they confirm it is on the strata to either get a key cut or locksmith to open it however the strata is deflecting any questions to get this done.

I'm working on cleaning up and putting into service a LeBlond Regal 15x30 that was bought at auction, and I'm having trouble opening up the electrical cabinet. I want to check ...