

It shall be unlawful for a landlord to intentionally cause termination of any of his or her tenant's utility services, including water, heat, electricity, or gas, except for an interruption of utility ...

Up to 12 months of rent and electric utility assistance for low-income persons in Clark County who have been negatively affected by the COVID-19 pandemic will be available ...

Clark Public Utilities has partnered with Clark County to administer the LIHEAP program for all residents, regardless of heating fuel type. Call to find out if you meet the basic requirements ...

The federal Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) provides grants to help eligible residents pay for a range of home heating fuels: electricity, natural gas, oil, wood and...

