

Is Malaysia a good place to invest in solar energy?

Malaysia's solar industry is a rapidly growing sector. Located near the equator, Malaysia enjoys consistent solar radiance, making it ideal for solar energy projects. The National Energy Transition Roadmap (NETR) aimed for net-zero emissions by 2050 sets a comprehensive plan and ambitious goals for reshaping Malaysia's energy landscape.

How much solar energy is available in Malaysia?

A total of 1492.12MW of installed capacity has been in operation from the four cycles of the LSS programme as of August 2023. A further 949.09MW of solar PV capacity has been awarded under the programme but is yet to be operational. Despite the progress, there are still challenges facing the development of solar energy in Malaysia.

Why is Malaysia promoting solar energy development?

Malaysia has shown a strong commitment to promoting solar energy development since the introduction of the National Renewable Energy Policy in 2010. This commitment has proven fruitful by the significant rise in operational solar PV installations over the last 13 years.

Will solar power boost clean power in Malaysia?

Powering the national grid, these projects could significantly boost clean power by up to 2500MW. Future RE programmes are set to accelerate the development of solar projects in Malaysia, aligning with the country's energy transition goals.

What are the challenges facing the development of solar energy in Malaysia?

A further 949.09MW of solar PV capacity has been awarded under the programme but is yet to be operational. Despite the progress, there are still challenges facing the development of solar energy in Malaysia. The upfront cost of installing a solar PV system for the average homeowner is still high.

What is a floating solar project in Malaysia?

Floating Solar Projects: Leveraging abundant water bodies, Malaysia develops floating solar farms, such as TNB's hybrid hydro-floating solar (HHFS) project at hydro dam reservoirs. This follows the success of its pilot project in the ash pond of the Stesen Janakuasa Sultan Azlan Shah (SJSAS) in Manjung, Perak.
