

I'm developing a home appliance housing and need to source molds in Vietnam. My US toolmaker recommends H13 steel, but the cost is high. For a production run of around 300,000 parts in ...

The principle concern from mold isn't the mold itself, but the toxins that are produced as biproducts of the mold feeding. They can vary from almost harmless to deadly, there's no way ...

In conclusion, removing mold from your top load washing machine requires a combination of understanding the causes of mold growth, preparing your machine, and using natural or ...

